6. POLICE CHIEF'S REPORT:

a) Monthly Activity Report for June 2026:

1. Case Summaries and Calls for Service: 183 citations written. 24 violations of city ordinances. 840 total calls for service. The aggravated assault cases have decreased since the previous month. The busiest hour has been reported at 3 a.m. The busiest days were the previous Monday and Thursday.

2. Personnel Update: Chief Nunn reported that three officers are currently in training. He also stated that two sergeants attended Basic Instructor School for leadership training. Chief Nunn advised that, during the next training cycle, the department plans to establish an in-house training academy to complete the required 40 hours of training at one time. He added that officers will have the opportunity to develop specialized training curricula and instruct fellow officers in their areas of expertise. Chief Nunn further reported that the department recently underwent a TCOLE audit and received a result of zero deficiencies.

3. Financial Report Through June 2026: Rob O'Donel noted that the department is in a favorable position with respect to the fiscal year budget. He also mentioned that a few line items were over budget. Chief Nunn stated that he would verify that all expenditures had been properly categorized and labeled. He also noted that the projected year end budget should be approximately 98.9%. It was reported that the accruals for sick leave, holiday leave, and compensatory time have been revised to remain within the approved budget.
