3. CHAIRMAN AND COMMISSIONS REPORTS: None

4. MAYORS AND COUNCIL MEMBERS' COMMENTS (El Lago and Taylor Lake Village):
Commissioner Patrick Delly asked about going over or under the budget. Commissioners come into an agreement that if there is a surplus amount of funds within a certain line item, it can be reallocated to the line item over budget if needed. Commissioner Kris Kuhnel commented that the police chief appeared comfortable operating within the proposed budget and supported the department's needs. He noted the importance of planning for future tax increases in El Lago and involving citizens through community engagement to help support public safety efforts.

5. CITIZEN'S COMMENTS: None

6. POLICE CHIEF'S REPORT: Chief Nunn discusses the department's proposed budget. Capital expenses included equipment cost for new vehicles equipped with radios, sirens and other auxiliary items totaling between $15,000-$18,000. Capital equipment will include items such as computers, tasers, and body worn cameras. The total budget was reduced from $25,500 to $24,500. The budget for technology has been reduced from $11,000 to $9,500. LVPD was granted flock cameras; the Chief will need to meet with both cities to receive $9,500 from each. A sub-line for community engagement was proposed, possibly starting with $1,000 or even reduced to zero depending on the remaining donated funds approximated around $500-$600. There are items that will stay the same, some items were increased based on projection. LVPD is at 78% of the budget, projected to end the fiscal year at 98%. Moody Vs. Lakeview police will be discussed with legal representation present for both parties at the next commissioner's meeting held in August.

A motion was made to accept the budget discussed for the new fiscal year. The budget will be forwarded to the cities of Taylor Lake Village and El Lago.

7. Executive Session: None

8. Adjournment: The meeting was adjourned at 6:13pm.
